Upcoming ..

March is certainly going to be a month of jet-setting for Adelphi, with several European destinations on the cards and even a trip far flung as Hong Kong! Keep your eyes peeled for our stands at:

Hong Kong Whisky Festival (4th March)

This year, Adelphi will be taking part in the Hong Kong Whisky Festival, held at the InterContinental Grand Stanford Hong Kong. Lucy will also be leading a 45-minute masterclass at the event – tickets for which are already selling fast. Pours will include our Adelphi Private Stock blend, the 2016AD, Glenborrodale Batch 3 and Liddesdale Batch 10. This will be an exciting opportunity to introduce both Adelphi and The Ardnamurchan Distillery to the HK market.

North Netherlands Whisky Festival, Groningen (24th – 26th March)

Watch out for the Adelphi stand at one of the finest and largest whisky festivals in The Netherlands, The North Netherlands Whisky Festival. The event takes place in Der Aa-Kerk, a deconsecrated church, and last year attracted around 5000 visitors.

Whiskyship Luzern (30th March – 1st April)

Adelphi will be in Luzern for the first two days of this fair that takes place on 3 ships harboured in the Swiss city of Luzern. Over 40 stands will be present there and visitors will be able to try around 700 whiskies.

Whisky Fair Rhine Ruhr, Dusseldorf (1st – 2nd April)

Whisky Fair Rhine Ruhr is a renowned whisky event that takes place at the Classic Remise Dusseldorf (a venue usually know for exhibiting classic and sports cars). Over these dates however, whiskies will be on display and tasted with an Adelphi tasting held at 3pm on both days.

Although we are only the 2nd month into 2017, there has been plenty going on. The new Cask Offer has got off to a great start with a flurry of orders coming through and safe to say, on the Adelphi Selection front, we have some cracking bottlings lined up.

A tribute to Dr. James Swan.

JIM SWAN

It was with great sadness that we received news of the passing of whisky industry legend Jim Swan.

Jim’s career spanned decades, and his reach across the globe was phenomenal. In recent years his design and production consultancy has spawned new distilleries from Taiwan to the US, his unerring dedication to quality cask processing and procurement has ensured the utmost quality and availability for maturation and, above all, his natural balance of humour and focus has touched so many new and time-served members of the industry. We were honoured to count on his skills and advice through the early stages at Ardnamurchan, and his legacy will live on in our maturing spirit.

PROGRESS OVER TIME

It has been incredible watching how our distillery has developed and progressed over the last two and a half years. Certainly, a lot has happened since the distillery was opened by HRH The Princess Royal on the 24th July 2014, including two successful years of Private Cask Schemes (and starting a third), commendations for our new make and our first ever distillery release. Many thanks to Ray and Jean Gibney for sharing some photos from their visit in September 2014, where the Ardnamurchan Distillery was in its very early stages. It looks as if they had brought out the good weather during their stay (as much as we wish we could do – we can’t always boast about constant sunny and dry days in Ardnamurchan!). Although, it is this rugged west coast climate that has provided the ideal conditions for the maturation of our spirit. Since Ray and Jean’s visit, our warehouse has been filling up nicely and we are gearing up to the distillery’s 3rd birthday this year.

GEARING UP TO THE NEXT BOTTLINGS IN THE ADELPHI RANGE

Get ready for an interesting and exciting line up for Adelphi's first bottling of 2017. Although we reviewed multiple samples, in true Adelphi fashion we were very picky, with only 6 casks making the cut. Some delicious drams here ranging from across the regions.
