FINISH: MARRIAGE OF OLOROSO SHERRY &
PEDRO XIMÉNEZ CASKS

Dieser Campbeltown Single Malt ist eine besondere Vermählung von separiert gereiften Ex-Oloroso-Sherry- und Pedro Ximénez-Fässern. Als besondere Note entschied sich Micheal Henry für seine abschließende Signature-Harmonisierung im 1st Fill Bourbon casks, bevor der Single Malt in Batch Strength abgefüllt wurde. Durch den von Sherryfässern geprägten Charakter offenbart der Malt eine außergewöhnlich vielschichtige Aromatik, die perfekt mit dem typischen Campbeltown-Stil – fruity, oily & seaspray – harmonisiert.

The Prevailing Spirit of Campbeltown – dafür steht die Glen Scotia Distillery in Campbeltown, der viktorianischen Whisky-Hauptstadt der Welt. Die Destillerie begeistert uns seit 1832 mit einzigartigen, traditionellen Single Malts mit dem typisch maritimen Charakter der kleinsten Whisky-Region Schottlands.

"Glen Scotia has stayed true to its history – the original mashtun, the stillroom and the dunnage warehouse have been lovingly maintained and are still in working use today."

Iain McAlister, Master Distiller

TASTING NOTES

This example of Glen Scotia marries the best of Pedro Ximénez and Oloroso sherry to bring an interesting depth and character. Spiced rum, juicy plum, toffee and citrus peel on the nose. Then there is a rich mouthfeel with sweet vanilla, raisins and festive spices. The finish is long, nutty and dry – a superb sherry influence with classic Campbeltown DNA.
